

Dear Parents and Students,

We welcome you to a new school year at Nobelis School. We are looking forward to a year filled with learning and excitement, and that is why we have our native teachers with us. Here are some lines so that you get to know them.

PEDRO: My name is Pedro. I'm from Houston, Texas (USA). I'm a dog lover. I love coffee and when I'm not in the classroom I read science fiction books.

VICTOR: My name is Victor. My hobbies are writing and illustrating, when my cats allow me too...

OLIVIA: Hello! My name is Olivia. I am from Ireland. In my spare time, I enjoy reading and doing exercise.

PAT: I am Pat Obed Jantiku. I am from Nigeria. I love badminton and listening to mu. I am enthusiastic and have a passion about teaching, if my students remember me as a good teacher, that will be the greatest honour.

GIDEON: Hi! My name is Gideon and I'm from Ghana. I love singing, teaching and playing tennis.

JOE: Hi! I'm Joe, and I'll be teaching English this year at Nobelis School. I also like playing the guitar and singing.

DANIEL: My name is Daniel Richard, I have dual nationality British-French, my dad is from Newcastle (UK) and mum is Parisian (Fr). I think languages have helped us to communicate with more people, travel more easily, and understand different cultures and ways of thinking. This is something I really enjoy exchanging with students..
